All of this information is pulled from IMX's studio partner list.

I never see these titles talked about, and I thought I would share for those who are looking at the future games coming to the GME marketplace. The reason I am mentioning this is they aren't listed in the game section on the marketplace. All of these games are in development, and some look promising IMO.

1. E4C: Final Salvation

Original link has more titles obviously, some with are coming much sooner than the above(like Wagmi tower defense launching in less than 5 weeks).
