I've been reading a lot of posts lately about why people aren't DRSing and started really thinking about why I took so long to DRS. Like many of you, I thought the process would be difficult and I was worried about getting shares stuck in limbo if we were to jump suddenly. This week, I finally sent a sample of 100 GME shares to CS and was surprised that my account was created within the day and the initial letter was sent out immediately. Of course I shelled out the extra $45 to expedite the letter and I then intend on sending my other 1500 shares over once my account is fully activated. It wasn't hard at all!

DRS IS THE WAY! GO GO GO!
