Pretty much what is said on the title.

We did with the gorillas, we did with the toy donations, and some other, now it is time for books. Can we help him fill the new library with books?

here is the description from his Youtube video, I won't share the link on the post so it doesn't get flagged or something. We could make some noise so GME include more books in its inventory, game based books, table top RPGs rules books and stuff. What you guys think?

" Our Library in Kenya is currently EMPTY and we need to FILL IT UP with new or used books. Please send books to this address: 1347 N State St, Orem UT 84057 If you are local you can also drop books off during business hours and someone will be there to receive them. THANK YOU so much for all of your help and for watching my videos which makes all of this possible. You are the BEST! "
