Title says it. imo Ryan Cohen put out the pic of Ichan and himself as a way to let others know that while the positions seem contradictory, there is a connection. Just like every other BS "bombshell" that has been dropped by msm, Ichan being short is FUD.

Can't be said enough...DRS is the way to see what's behind the curtain. That's it! There is no other way, no other DD. If you as an investor want to know once and for all what is going on, DRSing your shares is the answer. There is no knight in shining armor. Those who haven't DRSd and are able to...I will never understand why. IRAs...why haven't you sent to Mainstar or another custodian? If you think Mainstar will fuck you in the end...do you believe that your current custodian/broker won't??? There is a long game being played and the longer it goes on the more that is learned about how to subvert responsibility. Honestly, it BLOWS MY FUCKING MIND to only see 200000ish CS accounts! Between my wife and I, we have 4. Even if everyone had only 1, I am expected to believe that only 200000 people have the ability to DRS?  $200000/50\text{states} = 4000$ ....Only 4 fucking thousand people per state own GME? Nonsense.  $200000/331000000 = .06\%$  That means, statistically, in my state there are only 4000 GME share holders. The fucking Green Bay Packers have 537,000 shareholders!!!! The fucking Packers. Shares of fucking nothing. I tell everyone I meet about GME I preface it with "I may be full of shit and it is quite possible I wear a tinfoil hat, but the numbers don't add up and I got one want to know once and for all how we are being fucked.....let's fucking go!!!!

Sorry for the rant. I am all in for the long haul as a xxxx holder from the sneeze. I buy shares direct every 2 weeks. There will never ever ever ever be another opportunity that allows everyone to see the inner workings.
