There has been a lot of tinfoil about the put position of Carl Icahn in Gamestop and how it could blow everything if he cashed in to buy the shares to close his position.

I'm not a rocket scientist but the amount of puts in the money for Jan 2023. Could those long in the money puts checked months ago be his????

Ryan Cohen putting into play calls on that date could be a sign?

Just throwing the gauntlet for more wrinkle apes.

Pleaseif I say something stupid I will delete the post.

Just want to open discussion on this topic that can be a sign or not.
