It is for my university and about how to make money through the metaverse. Who could I realistically interview for that. Ryan Cohen probably won't have time for that. Maybe someone from loopring? Maybe someone from Gamestop?

Idk

I want to talk a bit about NFTs, the marketplace, how stuff is handled now in the gaming industry and other marketplaces that exist right now. I already did a lot of scientific work about crypto and blockchain, which I can use.

Getting an expert interview would be really really nice for my project, but I don't where I should start searching for someone to interview.
