I drsed 101 more shares, the person kept getting errors and needed management approval. I called because they transferred out but then reappeared in my E*trade showing both in computershare and Etrade. Apparently the transfer was canceled "" due to shares being tier 2 margin not tier 1. So they said they moved them to tier 1 and processed. Pretty weird stuff, they also noted could take 2 weeks for cost basis to populate. Note she said that they automatically assume if you have margin enabled they will label as tier 2 shares? Whatever that means. Gme
