So it looks like the RobinHood Foundation is a front for New York and Wall Street hedge funds to throw their money into. All under the guise of helping New York's impoverished.

This a foundation that maybe have been hijacked by Hedge Funds.

The Foundations approach has interesting wording and seems like it does to the impoverished what HFT and PFOF does for retail traders, i.e. fucks them out of game.

Lehman Bros, Goldman, Bear Sterns, etc. All the big financial piles of excrement are up to their elbow in this "foundation".

They have taken in $3 Billion since their founding in 1988 and have, according to the report article, contributed a paltry sum of $25 million dollars.

This foundation is a front for some major financial fuckery.

All speculative of course, but more eyes needed.
