You ever wondered why Keith calls himself a cat? And suddenly at congress hearing he says that he is not a Cat?

Because this post 5 years ago at r/gme by user named CAT would explain many things, and this is not a coincidence that Keith posts the same painting years later.

■ = Good job.

And now you could say I'm just a tin foiled ape, but we all see now that u/RatioAtBlessons is cryptic, he leaves hints and is probably a Whistle-blower.

So, ■ means good job.

Ryan Cohen posts ■ out of nowhere hours after Keith Gill quadrupled down and bought 100.000 shares.

Ryan posts are cryptic, but why would he post a fist bump without a context. People speculated that it was connected to Riot Games but I don't believe that.

Good job Keith.

(WE know that Ryan reads our subreddit, we found out about this when he posted chairman meme, he easily could have seen u/RatioAtBlessons but I think it's much deeper.)

■ It was planned years ago? ■

■ DFV, RYAN, RatioAtBlessons connection? ■

Please dig and stay safe.
