Need advice to how to proceed. Been dealing with TDA for a few months and IDK what the heck to do next. Im just trying to find the cost basis for my first GME share that I DRS'd back in the very first wave last year. Computer share asked for the CBRS Transaction number from my call with them and TDA doesn't even have it like wtf. Also TDA keeps sending me these damn excel spreadsheet like Computershare is gonna take that trust me bro shit lol....

Anyways imma just keep buying from Computershare, been out of any broker since DRS started.
