I know the purpose of DRSing is to lock the gme float, and don't sell, so they can never cover, and price goes to infinity. Which is the biggest FU lolz to them.

But did anyone ever tried selling a share from CS, and how long did it take?

I want to go 100% DRS (now still have a few shares in my broker), so eventually will need to have to sell 1 share there, to get some of my tendies.
