**TLDR**: I will buy a share for each and every friend of mine, who passed away from this Simulation. Actually, I will buy a bunch of shares for them. And send them all to DRS Heaven.

Longer story:

Seriously, since it is quite difficult to get seniors, the People who did build our World we live in, to buy hold and DRS, simply because they do not have the courage/ability/will to buy hold and DRS, and also for the ones that are not with us anymore. I will do it for them, with my "money" (currency actually, money holds value by definition), with my account. I am NFA, so let's just say an IOU.

*The reason? How did this even come in my mind up?*

Back then, when I was "all in" in various projects, I ran pretty much out of money. Since I am proud and stupid (regarded), I did not ask for money, but the money did come itself, from people I knew (family), but they could have no idea I am struggling. They did send me some support, just enough to help me to go on, so I can pay my bills. I wanted to say Thank you, a lot of times, but sadly, I did not, not in the time frame they had in this Simulation. So how to say Thank you now? How? Just how? I can go grab some flowers, or simply... put DRS certificate on their grave. Imagine the idea, I have some DRS already, no problem, but imagine, I can return that help they did send me back then, I can use that "currency", and DRS it for the better World.

I am in the 100% CLUB ANYWAY, BUT i CAN DO MORE, sorry, that caps lock was not intentional, but I let it be, just for the sake of authenticity. SO, now I will do a list of People who I loved, and still love, and I will help them this way. I am too smooth brain, this can not be from my head, I believe someone did insert it from the other true World (not this Simulation).. I don't want to bore you even more, so.. checking the price, $25, pretty undervalued, I will grab it!

Thank you for reading and Stay strong, and **if you love someone, do not wait to tell them**. Since I love GME, I must have GME somewhere in my post.
