As I'm poor europoor i decided to buy 100\$ worth GME stock each month from october. I already got DRS account but looks like i cant buy directly without US bank account. Honest question is it enough? 100\$ will give me roughly 4-3 shares per month. We will lock float in 2024 so lets say 24months left $\times 3 = 72$ shares DRS. Is it enough shares for The Day?
