IMPORTANT: Please note that the Number of $GME Shares shown in the three screenshots below are BEFORE the 2022-Jul-22 $GME 4 for 1 Stock split or 3 for 1 Stock dividend.

There are several $GME Institutional Shareholders who have $GME Shares and either CALL or PUT Options, or have both CALL and PUT Options on GameStop Corp. (NYSE) Stock - $GME.

Many institutions do trade frequently during a Quarter (quite a few use computer programs to trade automatically); however, they do not have to notify their actual trades, but only their positions on the last day of previous quarter.

Therefore, the positions shown in the three screenshots below are mostly as of 2022-Jun-30; SEC rules allow institutions to notify up to 45 days, and funds up to 60 days, AFTER the end of previous quarter.
