Back in January of 2021 GameStop's stock price exploded as Reddit trolls went to war with old-school investors after the latter bet on the company failing. Reddit et al called their bluff, and well, it's now the stuff of documentary films. Speaking of, Netflix just released a new trailer for its upcoming documentary about the wild "gamestonks" saga, and it's made some of the trollish Redditors who were involved in all this very mad. So mad, they're threatening to cancel their streaming subscriptions.
