They cannot believe that 199k apes are in solidarity of buying up and direct registering the float of $GME. They cannot believe that their main weapon formed against us(MSM), has failed to deter us. They cannot believe that they cannot divide us, no political discussion will shake our resolve. They cannot believe that we have done the impossible, through some sort of group telepathy or basic retardation, if you're reading this you did it! You have made it this far, and you didn't sell! What other first in history task will apes do next?
