That's no different and speeding down a highway and bribing the cop. If I know the cops will take a bribe 'charge me' with the crime but not put it on record, no jail time, no business limitations, why not? The regulators make money off of crime occurring!!! Sec gets paid when they take the back door deal and settle with no admission of guilt and small reprimands!! The dtcc gets paid on failure to delivers!! What happens when the dtcc is net short?? Well if the float is in brokerages under dtcc nothing. When the dtcc realizes that they have become net short billions of dollars are going to change hands GME!!!
