I honestly don't even know how to start this, but here goes.

Like the title says, but a little pretext first. As I'm sure you're already aware, the dog sniffed out a map showing what's where and how its all connected.

Utilizing subtleties put out by RatioAtBlessons about a quiet little office in Austin: Quantlab - Reference

Their goal, in a sentence: We're a company that invests heavily in our people and technologies to get the best out of both. Let that percolate for a moment. A company owned by a predatory hedge fund, who's entre business model is built around figuring out how to get the most money out of people with the best technology possible.

What do I think that company is actually involved with? The utilization of quantum computing integration into the stock market. For reference, since most people don't really dabble in quantum computing - they're available for purchase by a multitude of companies, but D-Wave sold their first one to Lockheed Martin back in 2011. You know who else could have bought a quantum computer or two-dozen around 2011? Kenneth Griffin - net worth $2.3B circa 2011. For reference, Lockheed Martin's net income for 2011 was $1.253B.

But why are quantum computers so important to this? Their insane processing power when it comes to crunching numbers and their correlation to the Fibonacci Sequence and its Golden Ratio. Quantum Analysis or rather, its predecessor Quantitative Analysis is no stranger to Wallstreet, its been a staple in the industry possibly as early as the early 1900s and has since become the newest hot commodity for rich assholes to acquire. At least the media states it as being recent - which means they were utilized years before the Scrooge McDucks felt comfortable revealing a trade secret(pun fully intended). The correlation between Fibonacci's Sequence and Elliot Waves is also not a well known fact - outside WallStreet. Take a scroll down to page 84 & 85 - Elliot's Wave in relation to Fibonacci's Sequence has been a proven parallel. But, why hasn't it happened yet? Well its a combination of events, but in a sentence: Because some rich assholes have some quantum computers and a bunch of fake money gaming the system. Deep into this research I stumbled upon this:

Death(orchestrated suicide) of a Quantum Man

Zhang Shoucheng was a quantum computing genius and a pioneer in his field. In 2013, Zhang had started his own venture capital firm, originally called Danhua Capital, which invested hundreds of millions of dollars in technology startups. Danhua's financial backers included Chinese state-owned investment funds and the internet giants Alibaba and Baidu. He died on December 1, 2018 in a high profile mystery of a who done it finger pointing between China and the United States. No evidence was found that Zhang or Danhua did anything illegal, but in the days after his death a swirl of theories formed online. The most extreme claimed that the Chinese government had murdered Zhang to prevent the FBI from discovering the full extent of Chinese espionage. Or that the CIA murdered him to send a message to China. I find it no coincidence that leading up to this a certain Peng Zhao was making big moves within none other than Citadel. In 2016 a new role, chief scientist, was created specifically for Peng Zhao who was then global head of Market Making and in 2018 was promoted to CEO. What is Zhao's specialty? Quantitative Analysis.

It is my theory that Zhang Shoucheng unknowingly helped create the quantum computing monster that has been gaming WallStreet and once his job was finished, he became a liability. His death was set up in such a way, that it had two powerhouse governments too focused on blaming each other while the true culprits slipped quietly back into the shadows.

But, How exactly does Fibonacci's Sequence fit into all this? Or more accurately, how was a wrench thrown into the gears of something so cosmically binding? You see ,Fibonacci's Sequence, or more accurately Phi, is a part of every conceivable thing in existence. The whole universe follows Phi from our dna to the petals on a flower, branches on a tree to the way a bee makes it's hive. Including human beings emotion in relation to the stock market.

It is the Magnum Opus of exploit when placed in the wrong hands.

But an unknown variable was tossed into the mix. The Help. You and I. The Silent Majority. We The People, not just Americans but the common clay of the earth. We did something unprecedented to the holy trinity of exploitation, this Golden Calf of theme behind the curtain. We held and have continued to hold the singular few keys to their kingdom.

So congratulations you unwitting minority (and I do not say that disparagingly). You have accomplished something that up until this point even the cosmos itself was unable to predict, nor halt. You have helped expose this unending thread of instances that up until this point - were naught but fragmented pieces. It was only with your help that I was able to successfully dig this deep and assemble the pieces. For that I thank you to the points words can not express.

Now the real question is, what do we do from here?

Well, the only real answer I have for you is an overtly obvious one. Hold. Keep holding, this is not a once in a life time opportunity. This is a once. Period. Remember that.

As I've said before, you've been inconceivably helpful in helping me find this and I'll need your help again, or better put - we need your help. This is but a piece of the whole. All of the DD has lead up to this point and it will go beyond this of that I have no doubts. This is the extent of my abilities - I extend the offering to direct this piece and find more correlations within. I can't do this by myself, this is bigger than one person.

I suspect u/atobitt would like to see this as I would like to see how it fits in with his research. I have no doubts there is correlation between us. The full breadth of this societal farce is coming together in bigger and bigger pieces. I can't save everybody. But that doesn't mean I shouldn't try.

Hold. It really is that simple. I leave the rest in your more-capable-than-you-know hands.

This is not financial advice!
