The Computershare DD Series Compilation

A couple of months ago, when the Jungle was just getting settled, the conversation around Computershare and DRS was a growing hot topic of conversation. And after clearing our heads from some of the FUD fog of the previous 6 months, this community began collaborating and building what has become a vital, trustworthy resource for the entire GME community. I hope every single one of you knows how important you are in all of this. Every single DRS share makes a difference!!

Remember.. If the longs had known that they have the right to ask for their shares, and they really wanted a short squeeze, that's what they would've done."- International Broker's Thomas Peterffy regarding January 28th.
