I will simply re-post my comments which I added to [\[u/--GrinAndBearIt--\]\(https://www.reddit.com/u/--GrinAndBearIt--/\)](https://www.reddit.com/u/--GrinAndBearIt--/)'s post in the other Ape sub. IMO, as yields skyrocket and bonds tank, the GME rocket is getting closer to igniting.

Freakin' excellent article!!! ■

What resonated most with me is "where the fuck did all that COVID money go?". As per the article, it is bloody obvious that most of it went to Wall Street and not to small & mid-size businesses on the verge of closing down and low-income folks.

This greedy fictitious economy is indeed coming to an end. It's not a matter of IF but When. And based on this latest market pump by the FEDS & PPT, we know it will be soon.

Many thanks for posting my good Ape. As always, INFORMATION IS KING!
