I posted about how my points were not able to be applied to a game I was trying to purchase online and pick up in store. It was removed because it was "misinformation/fud". You are keeping people from getting answers about the company we are here for....Gamestop. How is anyone supposed to learn if my post gets down voted and removed? I was able to get an answer from some people in the community that were helpful, but you took it down so no one else in my position can learn, and the flaws in the mobile version of their website will not be know. Dicks...
